

Barry Alexander is a Certified Public Accountant in Austin, Texas. He worships with the Westover Hills Church of Christ, where he served as an elder for many years. He is the treasurer for the Come before Winter board and the chief administrator for the renewal. He is also the husband of Karen Alexander, the founder of Come before Winter.

Shane Alexander is the Preaching Minister for the Northcrest Church of Christ in Mexia, Texas. Shane holds a Doctor of Ministry degree from Abilene Christian University. He is the director for this renewal.

Steve Allison is a licensed clinical psychologist, the founder and Director of Counseling Services at Abilene Christian University, and he serves as the Robert & Mary Ann Hall Endowed Chair of Psychology & Intercultural Studies. He has done assessment and training with missionary candidates and mission teams for 30+ years.

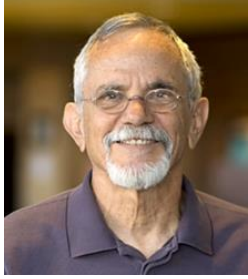

Cliff Barbarick is an Assistant Professor of New Testament at Abilene Christian University. Cliff holds a PhD in New Testament from Baylor University. He will be serving as co-director and is working hard to shape our curriculum for the renewal.

Don Corbitt is the President of Double D Enterprises and an Account Executive at Harvey-Daco. Don also serves as an elder at the Northcrest Church of Christ in Mexia, Texas. To each renewal, the Come before Winter team bring gifts for our participants (books, snacks, souvenirs, etc.). Don will be helping us procure, transport, and disseminate these gifts.

Chad Higgins is the Worship Minister for the Highland Oaks Church of Christ in Dallas, Texas. Chad will be leading our worship times.

Ron Holland is the Minister for Global Outreach for The Hills Church in North Richland Hills, Texas. Ron, a former missionary to the Philippines, has supported and advised Come before Winter since its inception. Ron will serve as the one of the registrars for the men's renewal.

Andy Johnson is the Missions Minister for the Landmark Church of Christ in Montgomery, Alabama. Andy spent 12 years among the Dagara tribe in Burkina Faso as a missionary. Andy helped craft the vision for this renewal and will serve as one of the registrars.

Jody Lee is Director of Marketing at Adolfson & Peterson Construction and lives in McKinney, Texas. Jody has a Masters of Arts and Religion from Abilene Christian University and spent time as a missionary in Thailand. Jody will be assisting the director in assigning participants their roommates and reflection groups.

Curt Parsons retired as the VP of EOG Resource. Curt is an elder at The Hills Church of Christ in North Richland Hills, where he serves as chairman of the shepherding group.

Nathan Pentecost works for Yum! Brands in Louisville, Kentucky. He is a veteran of numerous mission trips to Belize and will be utilizing his considerable photography skills to help document the renewal and tell its story upon our return to the United States following the event.

Randy Vaughn is the Creative Director at The Marketing Twins. Randy spent 10 years as a missionary in Benin. Randy will also be helping us with digital graphics, web, tech, and social media related issues.

Tod Vogt is the Executive Director of Mission Alive. Tod spent many years a preaching minister. He also has experience as a missionary in Benin. Tod will be our prayer director for the renewal.

Phil Ware is the founder and President of Heartlight.org. Phil also works with Interim Ministry Partners and is currently serving in that capacity at the Hillcrest Church of Christ in Abilene, Texas. Phil has also made several mission trips to Thailand (and other places across the globe as well). Phil's role is to come and be Phil.